Hemlock Falls isn't like other towns. You won't find it on a map, your phone won't work here, and the forest outside town might just kill you...

Winnie wants nothing more than to join the Luminaries, the ancient order that protects her town from the monsters and nightmares that rise in the forest of Hemlock Falls every night. Ever since her father was exposed as a witch and a traitor, Winnie and her family have been shunned. But on her sixteenth birthday, she can take the deadly Luminary hunter trials and prove herself true and loyal - and restore her family's good name. Or die trying. 13+

It should have been the perfect summer. Sent to stay with her late mother's eccentric family in London, Joan is determined to enjoy herself. She loves her nerdy job at the historic Holland House, and when her super cute co-worker Nick asks her on a date, it feels like everything is falling into place. Then a Good Samaritan attempt gone wrong sends Joan spinning through time, and her life quickly begins to unravel... 13+

Mystery, action, romance, fantasy, and a coming-of-age novel all in one.

Sachbuch Biografie, englisch

As the bookish daughter of a travelling salesman, Jami Attenberg was drawn to the road. Her wanderlust led her to drive solo across America, and eventually on travels around the globe, embracing all the messy life she encountered along the way. A fierce, and funny memoir of how the New York Times-bestselling author embraced her creativity - and how it saved her.

From the author of 'All Grown Up' and 'The Middlesteins'.

If only we were all a little less emotional and more rational, we wouldn't get ourselves into half the scrapes we do. Or do they serve a deeper purpose? For them to take up so much of our brain's resources, emotions must have evolved for a reason. But what is that? Dean Burnett investigates these questions and many more.

A fascinating and entertaining account of the science underlying our emotional lives.
