Former academic Arthur Opp weighs 550 pounds and hasn't left his rambling Brooklyn home in a decade. Twenty miles away in Yonkers, 17-year-old Kel Keller struggles as the poor kid at a rich school, hoping a sports career might lift him beyond family drama. The unlikely link is Kel's mother, Charlene, once Arthur's student - whose sudden call for help after years of silence sets everything in motion.

From the bestselling author of "The God of the Woods".

It's the day of the annual Fastest Feathers race in Little Ditch, but Marty Moose can't stop to join in the fun - he's got a very important parcel to deliver. The prize has got to reach the finish line before the contestants do! But that's not the only twist in the tail: Marty and Nibbles have to contend with ferret bandits who want the prize for themselves, and a pair of cheating ducks in a terrible case of fowl play.7+

The second adventure in a funny series from a bestselling illustrator.

I wish I were a DIFFERENT dog, the quick and clever sort. Perhaps a spotty, dotty dog with hair all trim and short. Max wishes he was A DIFFERENT DOG. But Max's owner thinks he's PERFECT! Can Max learn that he's perfect, too? 3+

A charming picture book about accepting differences and loving what makes us unique - filled with super cute dogs!
