Books to Help Understand the War in Ukraine

Applebaum, Anne
Red Famine

Roter Hunger - Stalins Krieg gegen die Ukraine

TB/Sachbücher/Geschichte

19,90 €

1932-33 nearly four million Ukrainians died of starvation, having been deliberately deprived of food. Red Famine shows how this happened, who was responsible and what the consequences were. It draws on a mass of archival material and first-hand testimony, that shows what human beings can do when driven mad by hunger. It shows how the Soviet state used propaganda to turn neighbours against each other.

Belton, Catherine
Putin's People

Putins Netz - Wie sich der KGB Russland zurückholte und dann den Westen ins Auge fasste

TB/Sachbücher/Politik

15,90 €

A chilling and revelatory expose of the KGB's renaissance, Putin's rise to power, and how Russian black cash is subverting the world. In a story that ranges from Moscow to London, Switzerland and Trump's America, Putin's People is a gripping and terrifying account of how hopes for the new Russia went astray, with stark consequences for its inhabitants and, increasingly, the world.

Browder, Bill
Red Notice

Red Notice: Wie ich Putins Staatsfeind Nr. 1 wurde

TB/Sachbücher/Politik

15,90 €

I have to assume that there is a very real chance that Putin or members of his regime will have me killed some day. If I'm killed, you will know who did it. When my enemies read this book, they will know that you know. A Sunday Times and New York Times bestseller. A true-life thriller by one of Putin's Most Wanted.

Gessen, Masha
The Man Without a Face

Der Mann ohne Gesicht

TB/Sachbücher/Politik/Biographien

15,90 €

When Vladimir Putin, an unimportant, low-level KGB operative, was rushed to power by a group of Oligarchs in 1999, he was a man without a history. Within a few brief years, Putin had dismantled Russia's media, wrested control and wealth from the country's burgeoning business class, and decimated the fragile mechanisms of democracy.

Gessen, Masha
The Future is History

Die Zukunft ist Geschichte

TB/Sachbücher/Politik

16,90 €

Masha Gessen follows the lives of four Russians, born as the Soviet Union crumbled. She charts their paths not only against the machinations of the regime that would seek to crush them all but also against the war it waged on understanding itself, ensuring the unobstructed emergence of the old Soviet order in the form of today's terrifying and seemingly unstoppable mafia state.

Higginbotham, Adam
Midnight in Chernobyl

Mitternacht in Tschernobyl

TB/Sachbücher/Geschichte

16,90 €

The story of Chernobyl is more complex, more human, and more terrifying than the Soviet myth. Adam Higginbotham has written a harrowing and compelling narrative which brings the 1986 disaster to life through the eyes of the men and women who witnessed it first-hand.

Judah, Tim
In Wartime

TB/Sachbücher/Politik

16,90 €

An account of the human side of the ongoing conflict in Ukraine by war reporter Tim Judah. Making his way from the Polish border in the west, through the capital city and the heart of the 2014 revolution, to the eastern frontline near the Russian border, he brings a rare glimpse of the reality behind the headlines. Along the way he talks to the people living through the conflict whose memories of a contested past shape their attitudes, and hopes for the future.

Plokhy, Serhii
Lost Kingdom

TB/Sachbücher/Geschichte

16,90 €

An astonishingly wide-ranging history of Russian nationalism chronicling Russia's yearning for Empire and how it has affected its politics for centuries. In 2014, Russia annexed Crimea and attempted to seize a portion of Ukraine. While the world watched in outrage, this violation of national sovereignty was in fact only the latest iteration of a centuries-long effort to expand Russian boundaries and create a pan-Russian nation.

Gates of Europe

TB/Sachbücher/Geschichte

16,90 €

Located at the western edge of the Eurasian steppe, Ukraine has long been the meeting place of empires - Roman to Ottoman, Habsburg to Russian - and they all left their imprint on the landscape, the language and the people living within these shifting borders. In this book, Harvard Professor Serhii Plokhy traces the history of Ukraine from the arrival of the Vikings in the tenth century to the current Russian invasion of eastern Ukraine and annexation of Crimea.

Yaffa, Joshua
Between Two Fires

Die Überlebenskünstler

TB/Sachbücher/Politik

14,90 €

In this penetrating exploration of contemporary Russia, Joshua Yaffa meets a variety of Russians - from politicians and entrepreneurs to artists and historians - who have built their careers and constructed their identities in the shadow of the Putin system. Torn between their own ambitions and the omnipresent demands of the state, each has found that compromise is essential for survival and success.
