The Man Booker Prize Shortlist 2018

Burns, Anna

Milkman

In this unnamed city, to be interesting is dangerous. Middle sister, our protagonist, is busy attempting to keep everyone in the dark about her encounter with Milkman. But when first brother-in-law sniffs out her struggle, and rumours start to swell, she becomes 'interesting'. The last thing she ever wanted to be.

Everything Under

Words are important to Gretel, always have been. As a child, she lived on a canal boat with her mother, and together they invented a language that was just their own. Now Gretel works as a lexicographer, updating dictionary entries, which suits her solitary nature.

The Mars Room

Romy Hall is at the start of two consecutive life sentences, plus six years, at Stanville Women's Correctional Facility. Outside is the world from which she has been permanently severed: the San Francisco of her youth, the Mars Room strip club where she once gave lap dances. And her seven-year-old son, Jackson.

The Overstory

There is a world alongside ours – vast, slow, interconnected, resourceful, magnificently inventive and almost invisible to us. This is the story of a handful of people who learn how to see that world and who are drawn up into its unfolding catastrophe.

The Long Take

Walker is a D-Day veteran with post-traumatic stress disorder. As he moves from New York to Los Angeles and San Francisco we witness a crucial period in American history, one that also allowed film noir to flourish. The Dream had gone sour but the country needed outsiders to study and dramatise its new anxieties.
